

TEACHER RESUME

Ronald N. O'Connor has been employed by the City of Idaho Falls Wastewater Division since November of 2007, and is currently the Collection Senior Equipment Operator. He has an Idaho Bureau of Licensing Wastewater Collection Class IV license (WWC4-18110), a Wastewater Treatment Class IV license (WWT4-19422), and a Laboratory Analysis Class II license (WWL2-18407). He is also the first Professional Operator (PO) in the state of Idaho, certification number POC4-00008-0115 offered by ABC (Association of Boards of Certification) and C2EP (Certification Commission for Environmental Professionals).

Ronald has successfully completed the following CEU courses offered through the College of Engineering, Office of Water Programs at California State University, Sacramento:

- Operation of Wastewater Treatment Plants I
- Operation of Wastewater Treatment Plants II
- Advanced Waste Treatment
- Treatment of Metal Wastestreams
- Industrial Waste Treatment I
- Industrial Waste Treatment II
- Pretreatment Facility Inspection
- Operation and Maintenance of Wastewater Collection Systems I
- Operation and Maintenance of Wastewater Collection Systems II
- Collection Systems: Methods for Evaluation & Improving Performance
- Small Wastewater System Operation and Maintenance I
- Small Wastewater System Operation and Maintenance II
- Manage for Success
- Utility Management
- Water Treatment Plant Operation I
- Water Treatment Plant Operation II
- Water Distribution System Operation and Maintenance
- Small Water System Operation and Maintenance
- Operation of Wastewater Treatment Plants Online Course 601A – Facilities and Pretreatment
- Operation of Wastewater Treatment Plants Online Course 601B – Sedimentation and Flootation
- Operation of Wastewater Treatment Plants Online Course 601C – Fixed Film Processes
- Operation of Wastewater Treatment Plants Online Course 601D – Suspended Growth Processes
- Operation of Wastewater Treatment Plants Online Course 601E – Disinfection